The Battle of Vinegar Hill

Congratulations to the winners of the Battle of Vinegar Hill Photo Exhibition.
First place went to Jen Keys, second place to Lawrence Gatt and third place to Nic Peters. What were the judges looking for– pictures telling the story of what happened at Vinegar Hill.

We are still looking for volunteers to man the exhibition over the next two weekends.

Congratulations to Show Winners

BCPC members have had another successful year at the show with two show champions and several places.

Lawrence Gatt received 3 firsts a third and 2 Highly Commendeds. Jen Keys received a first.. Peter Kissun received a second and 3 Highly Commendeds.
Simon Doller received a third and 2 Highly Commendeds. Amy Cassim, Anne Galambos and Bill McNeil received a Highly Commended each.

Who were the champions? Lawrence is the Colour champion with an entry in the portrait section and Jen is the B/W champion with an entry in the B/W Open section.

Thanks for helping at the show

A big thanks to all the members who helped out at the show over the weekend and received all the entries.

February Peoples Choice Awards

Peter Kissun and Lawrence Gatt

February Top Scorers

Lawrence Gatt scooped the pool this month winning all the print sections.
Sadly there were no entries in the slide section.

Small Print Section

The Small Print Section was introduced during the February competition and proved very popular with entrants. Many thought this section should be divided into b/w and colour, so a quick vote was taken from those present and we now have 2 sections for small prints.

Just a reminder that small prints are prints which come directly from the mini lab or directly from the digital camera with no manipulation. Any print looking as if it had been manipulated will not be accepted unless accompanied by the negative or original file with exif information intact.

Changes to Outings

The camera rally will be incorporated with Autumn Colours at Mt. Wilson in May. Taronga Park Zoo is renovating and should be finished by September and a request has been made for Bare Island in winter – so this now takes the July spot

Any more outing suggestion welcome.
