Kiama Trip

Wonder of wonders I'm not fighting to get a report for this trip. I now have two Go to the web site to read what others say about this very enjoyable day. And for those on the trip who haven't provided them -- where are your photos.

Camera Rally

Best Photographer - Chris,
Best Photograph – Bob,
Most Creative - Alyssa,
Most Humorous - Bronwyn
Best Technique - Penny

FCC Interclub

We'd like to congratulate Linda and Andrea our 2 top scorers in the FCC Interclub last Sunday. Linda got a 13 for one of her Projected Image Nature entries and Andrea got a 13 for an Open Projected Image. Also BCPC did very well in raffle stakes with prizes going to Linda, Val and Anne. Congratulations Ladies

Things to do during the break Christmas Lights

An impromptu outing is being organised to shoot the Christmas Projected lights in the city on Saturday 20th December, with maybe a bit of time in Martin Place with the Christmas Tree. Meeting at Seven Hills Station, travel will be by train in a large group. See Jen for more info.

10th January. Festival First Night.

With the streets again cleared of cars, the Festival explodes onto open-air stages across the CBD.

Dawn Chorus Sydney Philharmonia Choirs. A program of concerts that will take place at sunrise on some of Sydney's beaches.
